On Saturday, Dec. 2, from 2 to 9 p.m., toast to the holiday season with the Holiday Cheer's Festival, taking place at Chandler's Rawhide Western Town. Spend the day getting a head start on Christmas shopping thanks to a lineup of artisan vendors, indulge in good eats via the food trucks and food vendors and sip on plenty of festive drinks, like holiday cocktails, hot mulled wines, hot butter rum, holiday grog, Christmas wines, beers and spirits, just to name a few. There will even be a gourmet hot chocolate bar!

Guests get to enjoy the holiday fun of Rawhide while at the festival, including a rock-climbing wall, panning for gold, a mechanical bull, Christmas carols and plentiful Christmas lights. Plus, event-goers can take in the fresh snowfall from 7 to 9:30 p.m., visits from Santa Claus for from 6:30 to 9 p.m. and a hoiday parade at 6 p.m.

A Holiday Cheer's Festival tasting ticket is $35 and includes admission, a glass of sparkling wine, a keepsake engraved wine glass and bottomless tastings.

The event benefits the Calling All Angels Foundation, which provides support to single parents and their children with cancer.
