10 Things to do in Phoenix this Weekend

From lively libations and jam sessions to Tony Award-winning plays and action-packed baseball games, this weekend June 1-3 has something in store for every Valley girl and guy. So take your pick, and enjoy a fun and new rendezvous.

Friday:

The Humans at ASU Gammage

Starting Tuesday, May 29, and concluding June 3, catch 2016 Tony Award “Best Play” winner, The Humans. The Humans breaks tradition and takes the audience on a roller coaster of emotions, all while sitting at a family dinner on Thanksgiving. To purchase tickets, click here.

Happy Hour History Tour at the Arizona Biltmore, A Waldorf Astoria

Enjoy happy hour with a side of culture this weekend as you enjoy the Biltmore's newest addition, Happy Hour History Tours, beginning May 25 at 6 p.m. Walk the halls in remembrance of worldly celebrities including U.S. presidents and Old Hollywood stars, like Marilyn Monroe, and prepare to be captivated by the amazing architecture. The 45-minute tour will run every Friday evening, is priced at $20 per person and includes two of the resort's most iconic libations, the Catalina Spritz and the Tequila Sunrise.

Come out and enjoy a childhood favorite this Friday night at Arizona Broadway Theater. Mary Poppins has landed in the Valley and hopefully, so have her spoons filled with sugar. So grab your family and head out to Arizona Broadway Theater for opening night on June 1. To purchase

Rock of Ages at Mesa Arts Center

Are you ready to rock out? Well, we have just the event for you. Rock of Ages is returning to the Valley and, with it, comes the musical giants from the 1980's like Styx, Journey, Bon Jovi, Pat Benatar, Twisted Sister, Steve Perry, Poison and Europe, among other well-known rock, glam, and metal bands. So prepare to enjoy great music along with a journey through young love, nightclubs and the search for stardom. This musical is appropriate for teen and adults and tickets range from $28 to $32. Take your family out to the ballgame this weekend as the D-Backs take on the Miami Marlins. First pitch is at 6:40 p.m. on Friday, June 1; 7:10 p.m. on Saturday, June 2; and 1:10 p.m. on Sunday, June 3. To purchase tickets, click here.

Isse

This Friday, June 1, from 6 to 10 p.m., the Found:Re in Phoenix is hosting a special art exhibit, along with an artists' reception, to kick off Phoenix's First Fridays Art Walk. Artist Isse Maloi is set to display his show titled, "Himalayan Bath Salt," which hints at the fact that gallery-goers "won't really know what they're walking into" when they explore his pieces which he's been working on for the past three years. Saturday:

ALS Association Arizona Chapter's Bite Nite

Spend your Saturday evening dining for a cause. ALS Association Arizona Chapter will host Bite Nite to benefit the families and patients living with Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS), also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. So come and support the cause that has helped over 400 families and raised hundreds of thousands of dollars. Tickets are $150 per person or you can purchase a table of 10 for $1,500. For more information on Bite Nite and the ALS Association Arizona Chapter, click here.

This Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m., prepare to go on an exciting adventure through the midst of the Desert Botanical Garden. Nocturnal garden explorers can expect an experience relying on sensory stimulation and the deepest darkest mysteries of the desert night. For more information and to reserve your spot, click here.

Travis Tritt at Pepsi Amphitheater

Take a drive out to Flagstaff this weekend and enjoy the southern-rock-inspired country music artist, Travis Tritt. His distinctively soulful voice and exceptional guitar are expected to overpower the Ponderosa Pines of the Pepsi Amphitheater in the best way possible. Tickets are on sale now.
