

Corbin's Fashionable Picks

Written by Written by Corbin Chamberlin

Thursday, 15 July 2010 10:31 - Last Updated Thursday, 15 July 2010 11:22

For those who can not escape their lust for luxury, I have come up with a list of my favorite fashionable trinkets and ornaments that will surly have you craving something decadent.

Ceramic Bow Tie by Cor Sine Labe Doli

If Jeff Koons was to design for Brooks Brothers, I would imagine the concoction would look something like this ceramic bow tie from the Italian company Cor Sine Labe Doli. These charming little embellishments are an unconventional way to make black tie snazzy; they also come in a variety of finishes. $100. www.corsinelabedoli.com.

Hamilton Double Wrap Watch by Michael Kors

Can't afford the $1,875 Kelly watch from Hermes? Michael Kors has done a look-a-like to the iconic watch, but for a much more reasonable price. The Hamilton Double Wrap watch is simply chic with a locket style watch face and double wrapping band. $150. www.MichaelKors.com.

Happy Birthday Nail Polish by Deborah Lippmann

This nail polish from Deborah Lippman sends me back to first grade arts and crafts class. The Happy Birthday polish is a fabulous blend of glitter and party confetti. $18. www.lippmanncollection.com.

Velvet Dinner Slippers by Stubbs and Wootton

Nothing says elegance like velvet dinner slippers. I adore these slippers from Stubbs and Wootton with an embroidered skull and cross swords

Corbin's Fashionable Picks

Written by Written by Corbin Chamberlin

Thursday, 15 July 2010 10:31 - Last Updated Thursday, 15 July 2010 11:22

on them in velvet trim with grosgrain. Sure to make a statement at your next dinner party. $395. www.stubbsandwootton.com.

Frame Tote by Prada

For the working fashionista, it is so difficult to find a "working bag" that is chic and yet practical. This Prada dazzled me with its rich brown calf leather and strong gold accents. Perfect for both women and men, as its size is ideal for office use or just to decorate your arm. $2,150. www.barneys.com.

Folding Armchair by Hermes

Hermes has made a folding armchair that you can pack-up and take where you please. Constructed from pear wood and legendary Hermes quality leather, you will love this piece today and have it forever. $10,200. www.hermes.com.

Batchel by The Cambridge Satchel Company

So rare is it to find quality leather goods at a inexpensive price. The Batchel from The Cambridge Satchel Company is a chic take on the notorious satchel with purse like handles added to the bag. You can buy the bags in fun colors like purple, red and yellow and even it get personal with them by adding your initials in gold stamping. $129. www.cambridgesatchel.co.uk.

Tony Duquette Brooch by 1st Dibs

This brooch is the crown jewel of my decadent desires. Tony Duquette the legendary tastemaker was king of flamboyant fixtures both in house and wardrobe. This citrine and smoky quartz brooch in 18-karat gold is beyond stunning. $28,000. www.1stdibs.com.

Corbin's Fashionable Picks

Written by Written by Corbin Chamberlin

Thursday, 15 July 2010 10:31 - Last Updated Thursday, 15 July 2010 11:22