Dermatique is a new surgical and cosmetic dermatology practice in Scottsdale. Led by nationally recognized, W. Patrick Davey, M.D., MBA, FACP, Dermatique opened its doors in summer of 2012 and welcomes all patients with warm hospitality.

Located inside the Camelback Tower at 6900 E. Camelback Road, Suite 900 (near Scottsdale Fashion Square), Dermatique provides cosmetic and surgical dermatology procedures, as well as top of the line physician grade skin care products. Surgical procedures available to patients are Mohs micrographic surgery for skin cancer, local skin grafts and flaps for reconstruction of the surgical wounds, complex excisions and closures for removal of tumors. The cosmetic procedures offered are Botox injections, hyaluronic acid filler injections, microdermabrasion, chemical peels, photo facial, intense pulsed light treatments and laser procedures.

Dr. Davey, who practiced in Lexington, Ky. for the past 20 years and helped build the country's largest freestanding dermatology center is a well-trained and highly experienced dermatologic surgeon with demonstrable competence in invasive and noninvasive dermatologic surgical procedures. He has performed over 15,000 Mohs procedures and 25,000 skin surgeries. Dr. Davey is one of only six Fellowship Trained Mohs surgeons in the Valley. He is also a member of the Medical Staff of Scottsdale Healthcare in Dermatology and treats every patient with precision, focus, and compassion.

Dermatique is a patient-centered office. Self check-in grants privacy of appointments and procedures while wi-fi availability is easily accessed throughout the entire office. Sonos systems are installed in exam rooms allowing patients to personalize their music selection. A comfortable patient recovery room is available for all Mohs patients and comes complete with beverages, snacks, recliner chairs and a flat screen TV.

Dermatique participates with all the major insurance companies and is currently offering several introductory deals to first time patients. For those individuals seeking immaculate service and expertise, Dermatique in Scottsdale is sure to exceed all your expectations. Come enhance the natural you.
