Joining forces with A World of Illumination, producers of the world's largest animated drive-through holiday light experience, Schnepf Farms is gearing up for one of its most unique experiences yet! Christmas at Schnepf Farms, a World of Illumination is set to open the Tuesday before Thanksgiving. "We are so thrilled to launch this new event with our partners," says Mark Schnepf, owner of Schnepf Farms. "We believe we have something special to make your Christmas truly unforgettable."

Visitors will experience a Christmas village that features ice skating, a vintage Christmas carousel, a 4D state-of-the-art animated movie orchestrated by award winning pianist William Joseph, cookie decorating with Mrs. Claus, hayrides out to see Santa's reindeer, Santa's Toy Shop, visits with Santa, enjoy Snow-glow mini golf, marshmallow roasting over open bonfires and the world's largest inflatable Christmas-themed obstacle course. The highlight of the experience is the World of Illumination train ride, a fully lit musical excursion through Santa's magic portal. (Ride times should be reserved)

This enchanted holiday experience opens Nov. 26 and runs through Jan. 4, operating nightly from 6 to 10 p.m. Tickets range from $20 to $35 per person and can be purchased at the door or with discounts online at <http://www.schnepfchristmas.com/>. Visitors may sign up at the website now for a chance to win one of 500 family four-pack general admission tickets. Monday night is family night, and children 10 and younger, get free general admission entrance. A portion of all ticket sales will benefit A New Leaf Foundation.
