Mother's Day is on Sunday, May 8, and is fast approaching. What woman doesn't love flowers? Here is a list of florists around the Valley, so feel free to get a bouquet for all of your friends.

Cactus Flower

Throughout the month of May, Cactus Flower has a bouquet deal. For $10, you can order a dozen multi-colored roses. This deal is only available for in-store pick up, but you can order as many bouquets as you want online. This deal is so great you will be tempted to buy one for everyone you know. If you are looking for a bigger bouquet, then the "How Sweet It Is" assortment by Teleflora ($45) will please. With a mix of hot pink, red and coral flowers ranging from roses, carnations and Matsumoto asters with a little dash of green accents and assorted in a large glass vase, it will be the perfect centerpiece for any table. www.cactusflower.com

Phoenix Flower Shops

Flowers, cookies, brownies and spa sets are a few of the options offered at Phoenix Flower Shops for Mother's Day. "Hats Off To A Great Mom" ($64.95) includes seven pastel-colored, hand-decorated sugar shortbread cookies in a decorative basket. For a mom who loves tea, opt for the "Mom's Cup of Tea" ($29.95) flower bouquet, which consists of a tea cup and saucer arrangement filled with daisies and spray roses. www.phoenixflowershops.com
