There's something about ruffles that always catch my eye. Whether they're on a little girl's dress, party decoration or on a cake, I just love how ruffles can add a touch of casual elegance to anything.

The creativity that goes into cakes nowadays is nothing less than extraordinary. You can have them made into almost any shape, size or theme. What really catches my eye though is the addition of a classic ruffle on a cake. Whether it's for a little girl's birthday, bridal shower, even baby shower or even wedding; I just think ruffles are perfect.

This cake paired with matching cupcakes is the perfect ensemble to almost any type of girly party. Not only is it beautiful, but it's casual and elegant at the same time.

Can you say wedding cake material? Yes, I think I can with this cake from the Pastry Studio. What a gorgeous combination of ruffles, peonies and intricate detail.

In my search for some of the most beautiful ruffled cakes I came across Bella Cupcakes. I literally had to sit back and slowly scroll through her amazing designs one by one, and then over again. Amazing to say the least. Vanessa, the creator and designer behind Bella Cupcakes, goes above and beyond on every last detail. You can check out her blog here: Bella Cupcakes by Vanessa

Here are a few of her amazing designs:
