I'm a toy hoarder. Ever since having kids, I've become obsessed with finding the latest and greatest activities and items to keep my boys busy, stimulated, and having fun.

Little Tikes recently launched a line catered to babies. I was thrilled when they asked me to review their Lil' Ocean Explorers items--they're all fabulous toys that will keep your kids entertained through music, dancing, and developmental problem solving.

Check out the above All Things Mama TV video to see the toys in action. (Approved by my boys!)

Item details are as follows:

3-in-1 Adventure Course-- Dive into adventure! The 3 in 1 Adventure Course stimulates and entertains Baby throughout key developmental milestones: sitting, crawling, and standing. Age: 6-36 months MSRP: $79.99

Stand 'N Dance Starfish-- The Stand 'N Dance Starfish tower encourages Baby to create music and dance along. The light-up keyboard can be played by little hands when sitting, or by little feet when standing and dancing. Age: 9-36 months MSRP: $29.99

Dunk 'N Juggle Seal-- When Baby tosses the ball in the hoop, the seal celebrates by clapping its fins, playing music, releasing the ball down the spiral slide, and rolling it to Baby to chase. Age: 6-36 months MSRP: $19.99Crawl 'N Pop!

Turtle-- A Turtle twist on shape sorting! Baby will learn about shapes and colors as she places the blocks into the turtle's shell. When baby's ready to crawl, the turtle will lead the way, zig zagging along with lively music. And then, surprise!, the shapes POP! out of the shell for Baby to play all over again. Age: 6- 36 months MSRP: $16.99

Catch Me Crabbie-- Ready, set, crawl! Baby will have lots of fun chasing after this clackin' crustation. As baby approaches, the Crabbie friend moves! Age: 9-36 months MSRP: $14.99
