

Family Must-Haves: Holiday Apparel

Written by Amanda Rumore

Thursday, 17 December 2015 21:37 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 December 2015 21:39

It's easy to love the holiday season. It can be such a magical and joyful time of year, and we get to celebrate for an entire month. You can add sparkle, cheer and champagne to nearly every day of the season. From Thanksgiving through the New Year, the season is merry and bright.

This year, many Valley residents are dressing their entire family in holiday fashions. Mom, dad, children and pets, the trendiest trend for the 2015 holidays is festive duds for the entire gang.

If you're unsure of the dos and don'ts of holiday clothing, we have fun options for all ages.

Little Me

This season is all about the tots! From school holiday events, visits with Santa Claus, family traditions and so much more, the littlest kids in the Phoenix-land area are dressed in holiday duds. Little Me, the online clothing company for your mini-me's, has made it super simple for your children to look stylish and festive. To view the holiday apparel at Little Me, visit <http://www.littleme.com>.

Tipsy Elves

The go-to for modern, humorous Christmas "ugly-sweaters," Tipsy Elves has put the fun back into holiday apparel for men, women, kids and pets. With a slogan of "Not your mama's Christmas sweater," their full collection of sweaters, sweater dresses, tees and accessories are the most unique on the market. They also have holiday pajamas for the entire family. At Tipsy Elves, they promise that you'll find Christmas apparel that really jingles your bells. To view the best ugly-sweaters available, visit <http://www.tipsyelves.com>.

Mother Trucker Co

Accessories surely make your fa la la's much more enjoyable. This season, the go-to accessory for moms and tots alike is holiday trucker hats by Mother Trucker. These super -stylish trucker hats come in vibrant colors and sassy sparkles. With options like Naught, Nice, Believe and Oh Deer, you'll definitely be adding Mother Trucker to your personal list for Santa. To purchase your own Mother Trucker, visit <https://squareup.com/market/mothertruckerco>.

Family Must-Haves: Holiday Apparel

Written by Amanda Rumore

Thursday, 17 December 2015 21:37 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 December 2015 21:39

