10 Things to do in Phoenix This Weekend: Family Edition

Enjoy the simple joys in life this weekend of March 9 to 11 as you spend time with your family and appreciate the beautiful weather The Valley has to offer. Whether you want to lounge and treat your tots to a picnic on the lawn or go out and explore the critters in our backyard, this list has something in store for you. So take your pick and fix up a platter of fun for everyone to enjoy.

Friday:

A colorful poster for the Kidtopia event. At the top, it says "#Kidtopia Arizona's Hottest Festival For Kids!". Below that, it lists performances by Evie Clair, Asher Angel, Brenna D'Amico, and Issac Ryan Brown. The event is on March 10th from 10AM to 4PM at the Gilbert Civic Center. It also mentions giant inflatables, selfie galleries, sports activities, games, amusement park rides, a petting zoo, and much more. The Kidtopia logo is at the bottom right.

It's Arizona's coolest interactive festival built just for kids! This event features giant inflatables, selfie galleries, sports activities, games, amusement park rides, a petting zoo, and so much more. There will also be performances by In Real Life and Asher Angel from the Disney Channel's "Andi Mack." Guests will also enjoy a performance by America's Got Talent finalist and Florence's own Evie Clair! There will also be special guests including Brenna D'Amico from the Disney Channel's "Descendants" and the "Descendants: Wicked World" and Issac Ryan Brown from "Raven's Home" and "Black-ish." Admission includes the concerts, Topias and more. So grab your kiddos and bring them to #KIDTOPIA.
