Easter Sunday is coming in hot (April 1) and so are the sightings of the effervescent Easter Bunny. So deck out your kiddos in their Easter best and prepare for egg-citing egg hunts, amusing photo-ops, little peeps-friendly arts and crafts and visits from the furry fellow himself. Enjoy this hoppy holiday with your family and celebrate this sacred day (and the days leading up to it!) at any of these spectacular spots.

Bunnyland at Fairmont Scottsdale Princess

The Fairmont Scottsdale Princess is celebrating Easter with an exquisite brunch featuring cuisine from four different restaurants, Easter egg hunts and Bunnyland activities for the whole family—all inspired by Lewis Carroll's classic tales of Alice in Wonderland. After brunch, taking place from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., hop on over to the Sunset Lawn for egg hunts that will occur every half hour, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., as well as photo-ops with the Easter Bunny and at the Mad Hatter Tea Party Table. To round out the day, savor time at Bunnyland with rides on the Bunny Express train, meet and greets with Alice and her Wonderland friends, a Build-A-Bear Pop-Up Workshop and games. (Events open to resort and brunch guests.)

Easter Bunny Breakfast at Omni Scottsdale Resort & Spa at Montelucia

For youngsters and the young-at-heart, Omni Scottsdale Resort & Spa at Montelucia hosts the Easter Bunny Breakfast on Saturday, March 31, with a full breakfast buffet (think farm-fresh eggs, French toast, fruit, pastries and more) plus kids activities for all ages including cookie decorating, crafts, an egg hunt plus photo opportunities with the Easter Bunny. Reservations are taken by Haley Hill at 480.627.3111.
