

Bristol Palin Offered Job By Phoenix Radio Station Mix 96.9

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Friday, 07 January 2011 09:04 - Last Updated Friday, 07 January 2011 09:58

EXTRA EXTRA!

Bristol Palin, daughter of American politician and political commentator Sarah Palin, has been offered a job by Phoenix radio station Mix 96.9. It is said that she would be sitting alongside Matthew Blades, 96.9's morning disc jockey.

The 21 year-old recently purchased a $189,000 home in Maricopa and is said to be enrolling in Arizona State University. The controversial young star recently placed third on Dancing with the Stars.