

JAWA Wins Hearings Against Verizon Wireless and the Texas Attorney General

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Friday, 18 March 2011 09:46 - Last Updated Friday, 18 March 2011 10:28

EXTRA EXTRA!

JAWA has won two hearings against Verizon Wireless and the Texas Attorney General.

A federal judge in Phoenix denied a motion by Verizon for an order that would have prevented JAWA from doing business with Verizon customers. At the same time, a judge in Austin, TX refused to grant a similar motion made by the Texas Attorney General. JAWA has filed a countersuit against Verizon Wireless alleging deliberate business disparagement.

"This was a big victory for our company" said JAWA Founder and CEO Jason Hope. "Verizon Wireless is trying to use its dominant position in the wireless market to put third party content providers like JAWA out of business and we are going to fight them every step of the way."

About Jawa

Founded in 2005, Jawa develops software and media solutions enabling people to stay connected to information, entertainment, and communities while on the go. Jawa is a privately held company headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona. Jawa is a winner of the "2010 Best Places to Work."