EXTRA EXTRA!

Artists Launch Cooperative Artist Gallery at Mesa Arts Center
MAC Store gets new look, new layout, but same incredible artistry and more of it!

What: Whether you are looking for a great place to buy that special someone a classic gift for the holidays; enjoy local art on a weekend adventure; or find an inspiring art community, the Mesa Arts Center's "MAC Store" is the place to go. The MAC Store went dark this past Summer, only to fling open its doors on September 9th as a new, high-class Cooperative Artist Gallery. As such, the new store is run by the very artists who dream, mold and perfect the unique art featured for sale.

With the MAC Store in mind, 56 juried artists poured their souls into paintings and sculptures, jewelry and tapestry, metal works, designs from nature and much more. Local artists staff the store, so you can be certain your questions and concerns will be skillfully answered. And, as a part of the MAC Foundation - a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, purchases are offered without sales tax. The MAC Store is guaranteed to provide one-of-a-kind, local artworks for your own enjoyment or to dazzle your friends and family, whether for the holiday season or no reason at all.

Public support of the arts is the forerunner of an important national trend which leads to the community revitalization through arts-driven economic development. The Mesa Arts Center encourages you to support the arts and shop local.
