

Beate Ong to the Rescue!

Written by Sarah Love

Thursday, 16 February 2012 09:08 - Last Updated Thursday, 16 February 2012 13:41

EXTRA EXTRA!

Pet owners and lovers can come out and enjoy a posh beauty treatment for themselves and their pet while making a difference. The twelfth annual Beauty to the RESCUE will help raise funds to support RESCUE to fight against pet euthanasia. For a minimal donation anyone can take part in this event.

Guests will also be entertained with the local band Elvis Before Noon also food and beverages will also be provided. This event will be hosted on Sunday, March 4th from 9 a.m.- 2 p.m. at the Mane Attraction Salon at 3156 E. Camelback Rd, Phoenix Ariz. 85016.

Beate Ong, owner and operator of Mane Attraction says she has a special place in her heart for all the pets that RESCUE helps. RESCUE (Reducing Euthanasia at Shelters through Commitment and Underlying Education) is responsible for saving many pet lives as well as providing them with veterinary care in order to prepare them for adoption.

"Healthy animals are being euthanized because they are not adopted and placed in loving homes. The real beneficiaries of this event will be the huggable animals that are adopted at this outstanding and important event," Ong said.