

"The Human Calculator" Visits Valley School

Written by Kirstina Bolton

Tuesday, 01 May 2012 14:41 - Last Updated Tuesday, 01 May 2012 16:41

Extra! Extra!

Scott Flansburg, appropriately dubbed "The Human Calculator" by television personality, Regis Philbin, is visiting Lexis Preparatory School tomorrow morning to demonstrate his methods of calculating numbers at a rapid rate. He holds the Guinness World Record of calculating a series of problems faster than anyone--even a calculator, and has several books out, including "Math Magic" and "Magic Math for Kids."

Find out more about his amazing talent, scottflansburg.com.