Extra! Extra!

Backstreet Boys and *NSync have come and gone, but the buzz over boy bands can never be stifled, especially when English-Irish boy band, One Direction is sweeping the nation.

One of our interns, Sara David, happened to be in Chiacgo during One Direction's book signing last week and used AZ Foothills' credentials to snap up-close shots of the band before their debut concert this Sunday in Phoenix.

One Direction will perform at Comerica Theatre this Sunday, June 10.
