The Agency Arizona is now one of our official sponsors for the Face of Foothills 2013 contest! One of our finalists for the competition will win the chance to sign with this elite agency if they are not already signed with another modelling agency. In addition, we will have someone from Agency Arizona be one of our final judges to decide for our winner, and runner up. They will also be involved with our finale fashion show featuring fabulous brands and models.

Tune in for our online contest that begins July 1st, and any inquiries about purchasing finale tickets, please email faceoffoothills@azfoothills.com.
