EXTRA! EXTRA!

Looking for Frank Sinatra? Well, Frank Sinatra's spirit lives on in a themed room after the icon himself. This room is in the El Dorado Hotel in Scottsdale. The used to be apartments are now a newly revamped hotel. Each room at the hotel is themed. They have a couture room, crimson room and, yes many more. This rooms are bigger, theyused the orginal tile back from when it was built in the 1960's, and gives it that home feel. The hotel's grand opening will be September 29. The night will include food, drinks, live band, casino tables, and a raffle.

Tickets are on sale and proceeds go the Boys and Girls Club of greater Scottsdale.
