

New Act Announced for Fight Night

Written by Melissa Larsen

Thursday, 10 January 2013 09:30 - Last Updated Thursday, 10 January 2013 10:42

This year's Celebrity Fight Night, in support of Muhammad Ali Parkinson Center at Barrow Neurological Institute in Phoenix and other great causes, is shaping up to, yet again, be a fab star-studded event. It has been announced that Grammy award-winning band Steve Martin and The Steep Canyon Rangers will perform at Celebrity Fight Night XIX on Saturday, March 23 at JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort & Spa in Phoenix.

In addition to Steve Martin and The Steep Canyon Rangers and featured guest, Muhammad Ali, country songstress Reba McEntire returns as the evening's emcee for her eighth consecutive year. David Foster will serve as musical director for his 14th year. (Additional performers and attending celebrities will be announced leading up to the event.) In previous years, Celebrity Fight Night has welcomed Garth Brooks, Halle Berry, Josh Groban, Michael Buble, Miley Cyrus, Jon Bon Jovi, Kelly Clarkson and many more.

Individual tickets range from $1,500 to $5,000 each. For reservations, call 602.956.1121. www.celebrityfightnight.org.