EXTRA EXTRA!

Your dog could be a celebrity! Commercial photographer Andrew Grant is the creator of a book called Rover, a high quality hardcover book filled with adorable photos of dogs to bring awareness to and raise money for rescues. You have the opportunity to have your rescue or purebred dog featured in this incredible book when you make a donation of $5,000.00 to a partnering local rescue. Over $400k has already been raised, so let's keep it going and support rescue animals!

Andrew will be available in the Phoenix area this week photographing selected donor's dogs! This is an awesome opportunity to make your dog a celebrity as well as donate to an excellent cause. Don't wait too long, spreads are limited! Act today to ensure your dog's spot!
