

Dancing with the Stars Hits Arizona

Written by Jaclyn Weishar

Wednesday, 20 February 2013 16:23 -

EXTRA EXTRA!

The National Kidney Foundation of Arizona will host Dancing with the Stars Arizona 2013 this Saturday, Feb. 22. Taking place at The Phoenician, these community superstars have partnered with expert dance instructors to create amazing routines. The 2013 Celebrity Dance Champions will be selected by combining votes from professional competition dance judges and the audience. Votes will be available for purchase before and during the event. The event will also feature performances by Elektrolytes of America's Best Dance Crew and American Idol finalist Scott MacIntyre.

For more information and to view the all-star lineup, click here.