Sure--plenty of gala events tout "celebrity auction" items like autographed pictures and concert tickets. But Celebrity Fight Night, held Saturday, March 23 at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort & Spa in Phoenix, has just announced some very special charity auction items that will knock off your socks: dinner with Billy Crystal and Robert De Niro, a dream day on the golf course with Phil Mickelson, a red carpet experience with Jennifer Lopez, dinner at the home of Reba McEntire and more. Funds raised support Muhammad Ali Parkinson Center at Barrow Neurological Institute in Phoenix, as well as numerous other charities. www.celebrityfightnight.org.
