

How to Meet Taylor Swift

Written by Caitie Andreen

Thursday, 30 May 2013 15:16 - Last Updated Thursday, 30 May 2013 15:53

EXTRA EXTRA!

The show sold out within seconds. Thousands of fans from all around Arizona gathered inside the Jobing.com arena to see Taylor Swift perform. Many were simply happy to see her from their seats, while others hoped for the possibility to meet her.

It seems near impossible to meet a famous person unless one is famous. Usually the only way to meet a celebrity is by knowing someone with the right connections or by hoping to win a radio contest "Meet and Greet". However, Taylor Swift concerts have a special and unique opportunity to meet Taylor after her performance.

This is possible due solely to Taylor Swift's mother. Travelling with Taylor to every single one of her performances, Mrs. Swift goes through the crowd during every show and finds the fans with the best Taylor Swift outfits who appear to love Taylor most. She then gives them a pass to meet Taylor Swift after the show.

In order for to be noticed by Swift's mother one must compete with a plethora of some of the best fan outfits there are! However, this chance to meet her is fair and more likely than it is to win a radio contest! So, if you left the show disappointed that you did not get to meet Taylor Swift, start planning your outfit for the next time she comes to town. Make sure it is fun and crazy enough to be noticed by Taylor Swift's mom!

Featured above is Callie Jones and Johnna Tucker. Dressed in outfits from Taylor Swift's "22" music video, these two lucky fans were pulled out of the crowd to meet Taylor after her Tuesday performance in the Jobing.com arena.

Featured above is Mrs. Swift, Taylor's biggest fan.