

Scottsdale Nightclub to Close

Written by Melissa Larsen

Monday, 24 June 2013 13:33 - Last Updated Monday, 24 June 2013 13:44

After 16 successful years in the Valley, Axis-Radius in Scottsdale will be torn down this summer to make way for two new nightlife venues (Livewire, a 1,000-person concert venue and Bottle Blonde, a craft beer hall). Before Axis-Radius closes its doors for good, they are celebrating with a two-day blowout bash. It all kicks off on Friday, June 28 with a "Blackout" party, historically one of the club's biggest parties of the year. On Saturday, June 29, the club preps for "Last Call," one final chance to dance along with your favorite club DJs of the past and present, including Steve Levine, DJ Randy, DJ Phantom and DJ Swerve. Best of all, guests that bring any Axis-Radius promo item from its 16-year run will enjoy no cover charge.