EXTRA EXTRA!

Imagine rubbing a product called "Toe Juice" all over you. Certainly, that doesn't sound appealing; but for some reason, people all over the Valley are doing that exact thing. 'Toe Juice' is the newest skin product to hit the market that actually seems to be working. The product contains willow bark, lemon peel, and Cinnamonum extracts. All it is is a combination of plant-based extracts that enhance the skin's natural repairing ability. It's simple, clever and it works! Toe Juice promotes beautiful, healthy skin, which everyone can agree with! Recently, the company has been aiming at expanding their name within the Scottsdale area. This is fabulous news for us! The Valley can witness first hand what amazing results 'Toe Juice' offers its users. It is rapidly becoming Arizona's safe, fast, and effective option for skincare. The best part is, there is no hassle in finding the product because it is conveniently sold at Walgreen's as well as many other pharmacies around the Valley; and is also available to order online. If you are looking to try something different, don't forget about 'Toe Juice'!
