JANI Model Management, Best of Our Valley 2013 Winner, is proud to announce that five of their models have recently secured representation with Elite Model Management.

Jenna, one of the newest faces for JANI and recent Elite addition, booked her first show walking for T-Rain in Funkshion Fashion Week. Just a week after Mikalah signed her contract with Elite she booked a campaign with the national department store, Kohl's. Elite has kept Face of Foothills 2014 runner-up Allison busy as well, most recently shooting with Abercrombie & Fitch.

Founded in 2011 by photographer and graphic designer, Maral Jorjani, JANI Model Management broke into the world of high fashion via Jorjani's keen eye for talent and beauty. As such, they continue to place models with exclusive agencies both nationally and internationally.
