The Junior League of Phoenix will host its debut fundraiser and first annual White Party on Saturday January 11th from 6p – 9p at Casablanca Lounge in Old Town.

In addition to the spectacular roof top views and entertainment, guests will enjoy 2 complimentary drinks, appetizers and leave with a special gift. Party goers are also asked to dress to impress in their best all white attire.

The JLP consists of highly motivated, educated and influential women who transform the Metro Phoenix community through advocacy, direct service and public education.

Tickets are available at www.jlp.org and go to support the Junior League of Phoenix.
