Tennis courts and wine cellars are often popular amenities when it comes to luxury real estate in the Valley. Well, a new two-bedroom listing from Russ Lyon Sotheby's International Realty at Octave Mine--12 miles from Wickenburg--spotlights 25 miles of gold-stricken tunnels are among the long list of amenities.

The $5.9-million listing also features 266 patented acres, mining equipment, scenic views from three patios, an innovative system of solar and wind generation, an FM tower, and two full-time guards on the property. The home has also been featured on the SyFy network.
