Think you can strut your stuff like Gisele? The Phoenix Cotillion is looking for female models ages 13 – 21 to be featured in their 2014 Spring Fashion Show & Gala. Models can audition for the May 9th show by attending a casting call at the newly renovated Pink Pony in Old Town Scottsdale on March 30th at 4p. Models who attend the casting will not only be considered for the Phoenix Cotillion Fashion show but also have the chance to be seen by the Ford Robert Black Agency and entered into AZFoothills.com Face of Foothills 2015 contest.

Those selected to appear in the Phoenix Cotillion Fashion Show will be outfitted for the event by Dillard's as well as compete for an all-expense paid scholarship to the International Model and Talent Association convention in New York City this coming July. IMTA is the largest and most prestigious membership organization in the world for the development of models, actors, singers, songwriters, and dancers.

All models who wish to attend the casting must RSVP here in order to secure their spot. Space is limited and applications can be downloaded here. Models are asked to bring a photo of themselves along with the application and wear a black skirt and fitted white tank.

The Spring Fashion Show & Gala, co-chaired by Ghinwa Jaber and Pamala Wright-Keiper, will benefit the IMTA Scholarship Fund and feature a fun-filled evening of cocktails, fashion, dining, and dancing. For tickets, tables, or sponsorships contact 602.373.8666 or 480.584.8358.
