Congrats to Colling Media! The Scottsdale-based tra-digital marketing firm has ranked among the fastest growing private companies in the United States, landing them a spot on the prestigious Inc. 5000 List. The list represents emerging corporations in the most important segment of the economy—America's independent entrepreneurs. With nearly 200 percent growth over the last three years, and 2014 revenue topping $5.4 million, Colling Media ranked No. 2044 in the nation.

"Our agency has been fortunate to be at the forefront of the evolution of tra-digital marketing and the implementation of new tools and technologies including the creation of proprietary software that helps our clients better track the efficiency of their marketing investments," says Brian Colling, founder and CEO of Colling Media. "We've assembled a highly specialized team of marketing and media experts that together offer an unprecedented level of knowledge and expertise in the digital and traditional marketing realms."
