A staple of the Scottsdale art scene in Old Town Scottsdale's Gallery District since 2004, Gallery Andrea is owned and operated by international artist Andrea de Kerpel and her daughter Andrea Zakrzewski. Andrea de Kerpely-Zak is known for her colorful and delicate impressionist "Healing Flowers" that symbolize freedom and healing, which she has been creating for over 35 years. Notably she had two of her works commissioned by the late Pope John Paul II and her paintings are published with Georgia O'Keeffe.

Daughter and gallery partner, Andrea Zakrzewski paints akin to her mother utilizing a palette knife to create work that is inspired by nature reflecting a loose impressionistic style. Zakrzewski has infused her love of her mother's work with her passion for the impressionists like Monet and Van Gogh. She is also the fashion designer of Artsyandreas Floral Fashion creating custom designed floral wearable art incorporating artwork by both mother and daughter, debuting her collections at Phoenix Fashion Week. Her wearable art is available at the gallery and online at AndreaZfloralfashion.com.
