The Maricopa County Home & Garden Show is Back at WestWorld October 16-18 Fall into Seasonal Décor and DIY Crafts While Shopping and Supporting Local Businesses

The Maricopa County Home & Garden Show, the largest home show in the Southwest, makes its triumphant return to WestWorld of Scottsdale Friday, October 16 through Sunday, October 18 with fall-inspired indoor and outdoor decorating ideas to freshen up your home for the new season. The show features a variety of local small businesses, artisans, and the best assortment of home improvement companies across the Valley.

"We are thrilled to bring back the October show to help support our local home improvement businesses and artists. We've taken extra precautions to ensure increased safety guidelines for everyone," said Katie Jones, show manager. "Our fall event displays an array of inspiration for Arizonians to spruce up their home for the holiday season with one-of-a-kind décor with the best deals in design, remodeling, landscape, and more."

The Home Show has created numerous safety measures and guidelines with an abundance of caution to ensure guests and exhibitors feel safe and secure, which include:

- Wider aisles, enabling the practice of safe social distancing
- Encouraging vendors and attendees to maintain safe social distance
- Ensuring the availability of handwashing and sanitizing stations
- Ensuring regular and thorough cleaning of the venue
- Masks required at WestWorld of Scottsdale. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own or a complimentary disposable mask that will be provided for them upon entry.
