

Heard Museum Extends Holiday Program, Holiday at the Heard

Written by Tyler Hollis

Monday, 07 December 2020 21:23 -

---

The Heard Museum has announced the expansion of its popular holiday program, Holidays at the Heard, extending it to every Friday and Saturday between Thanksgiving and Christmas as well as Dec. 29 to Dec. 31, 2020. Shop for holiday gifts, enjoy live musical performances, meet with and buy from featured American Indian artists, and more.

Highlights:

- Live music and artist demonstrations each Friday and Saturday
- Meet featured American Indian artists in the world-renowned Heard Museum Shop
- Browse the Heard Museum Shop for guaranteed authentic American Indian art and gifts
- Museum admission includes Larger Than Memory, named Best Art Exhibit by Phoenix New Times
- Courtyard Café opens for lunch from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Coffee Cantina opens for a grab-and-go lunch, or coffee, tea, and a sweet treat until 4 p.m.

Holidays at the Heard Schedule of Events:

Friday, Dec. 11 & Saturday, Dec. 12

Live Music: Artificial Red with Randy Kemp, (Choctaw/Mvskoke-Creek/Euchee), flute player and spoken word and Dean Yazzie, Dine (acoustic guitar).

Featured Shop Artists (Saturday and Sunday): Jesse Monongye (Navajo), Vern Begaye (Navajo), Sheryl Sunsunkewa (Hopi), Gerard Begay (Navajo)

Friday, Dec. 18 & Saturday, Dec. 19

Live music & featured shop artists: To be announced. For details, visit:

<https://heard.org/event/holidays-at-the-heard/>

Tuesday, Dec. 29, Wednesday, Dec. 30 & Thursday, Dec 31.

Programming to be announced. For details, visit:

<https://heard.org/event/holidays-at-the-heard/>

Written by Tyler Hollis

Monday, 07 December 2020 21:23 -

---

Health and Safety Procedures:

- Advance tickets are recommended
- Face coverings are required for staff and visitors in indoor spaces
- Social distancing will be enforced – parties that are not visiting together should maintain a 6-foot distance or more from other parties
- Disposable face coverings and gloves are available upon request and are free of charge
- Museum attendance will be limited to 100 visitors per hour

For a complete list of our safety protocols, please visit:

heard.org/reopening.