This Friday, January 16th at 12pm head over to the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art (SMoCA) for "Lunch & Lit" with Tim Rodgers.

Lunch & Lit is the perfect opportunity to listen and meet Rodgers while he hosts and discusses the novel "33 Artists in 3 Acts" by Sarah Thornton. The cost is just $10 or free if you're a SMoCA Member. Be sure to register for this great event by simply registering at: friendsofsmoca@sccarts.org.

Haven't read the book yet? No problem, but be sure to head to SMoCA for a fabulous lunch and engaging conversation as SMoCA Lounge offers their art centric version of a book club! Have you had a chance to meet the Director of SMoCA, Tim Rodgers? He provides great perspective and cultural insight into working with artists as well as his extensive experience working in a renowned contemporary art museum that should definitely prove to be fascinating and entertaining!

"33 Artists in 3 Acts", takes the reader "behind the scenes with the world's most important living artists to humanize and demystify contemporary art" in this fascinating narrative. Speaking with a striking list of acclaimed artists asking that age old question: "What is an artist? Through her insightful investigation she uncovers what it means to be an artist in the real world today looking at politics, kinship, and craft. Thornton is also the best-selling author of the book "Seven Days in the Art World".

The Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art is located at 7374 East Second Street, Scottsdale 85251. General admission to the museum is $7 for adults, $5 for students, and children under 15 are free. Every Thursday the museum offers complementary admission as well as Friday and Saturday evenings after 5pm.
