

Wednesday, 22 April 2015 23:45 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 April 2015 00:09

Radius 2 Returns to the Museum of Walking

Written by Nicole Royse

Wednesday, 22 April 2015 23:45 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 April 2015 00:09

What is MoW you ask? The Museum of Walking (MoW) founded in early 2014 by Angela Ellsworth and Steven J. Yazzie, local artists with a mission of "MoW is an educational resource center committed to the advancement of walking as an art practice, housing an archive and library comprised of walking related material engaging disciplines of art, science, philosophy, health, activism, and cartography." The founding members are veteran artists Angela Ellsworth and Steven J. Yazzie have an extensive background in both tradition and contemporary arts that both living and working here in Arizona. Want to learn more about these two talented artists then check out there websites now Angela Ellsworth and Steven J. Yazzie.

The founding members are veteran artists Angela Ellsworth and Steven J. Yazzie have an extensive background in both tradition and contemporary arts that both living and working here in Arizona. Want to learn more about these two talented artists then check out there websites now Angela Ellsworth and Steven J. Yazzie. Radius" will be on view at The Museum of Walking's ASU Tempe location until May 15, 2015. The Museum of Walking, is located in the Tower Center Suite 206, on the Arizona State University Campus at 123 E. University Dr., Tempe. To learn more about MoW visit their website <http://www.museumofwalking.org/> *Images Courtesy of MoW & Artists.