The Scottsdale Gallery Association in partnership with the City of Scottsdale hosts the ArtWalk every Thursday from 7 pm until 9 pm.

This weekly Scottsdale ArtWalk features a diverse selection of galleries highlighting both local and national artwork, artist studios, incredible public art, and museums. Visitors can enjoy a variety of activities including artist demonstrations, live music, wine and food samplings, and more! It is time to explore the local shops, excellent bars and local restaurants that Old Town Scottsdale has to offer. There are several galleries offering exceptional exhibitions and events each month!

Tilt Gallery showcasing the work of Jennifer Schlesinger in her solo exhibition “Contemporary Explorations in the Albumen process”. According to Schlesinger “The images in this series are influenced by literature, folklore, invention and reality as well as the unexplained and the curious.” This is a must see exhibition and wonderful intimate gallery, Tilt Gallery is located at 7077 East Main Street, Scottsdale. For more information visit <http://www.tiltgallery.com>.

Also be sure to stop by Carstens Fine Art featuring the fine art gallery and studio located in the Downtown Scottsdale Arts District at 7077 Main Street #5. Showcasing the beautiful southwest landscape paintings of Cyndy Carstens whose work utilizes a spectrum of brilliant colors, blending realism and abstraction resulting in meditative masterpieces. “Focus and reflect on portraying an awareness of the wide expanses of the sky and the details of nature”, says Carstens. Be sure to check out more from Carstens Fine Art at <http://www.cyndycarstens.com>.

The Scottsdale ArtWalk is located along Main Street and Marshall Way in Scottsdale and visitors can ride the Scottsdale Trolley for free until 9
