Get out of the house, shop local and enjoy the beautiful winter weather as the Scottsdale Gallery Association and the City of Scottsdale host their weekly ArtWalk from 6:30 until 9:30 pm.

This month's Artwalk theme is "Taste Monterey with Monterey County is making a stop at the Scottsdale Art Walk bringing some of its amazing bounty from land and sea". They will be offering free wine samples from award-winning Monterey County wineries as well as serving light bites from Chef Matthew Beaudin of the Monterey Bay Aquarium. The Scottsdale ArtWalk is located along Main Street and Marshall Way in Scottsdale and visitors can ride the Scottsdale Trolley for free until 9 pm! Old Town Scottsdale offers a diverse selection of galleries, artist studios, public art and museums in addition to local shops, excellent bars and local restaurants. For more information about the Scottsdale ArtWalk or the Scottsdale Gallery Association visit: <http://scottsdalegalleries.com>.

Casa de Artistas of Scottsdale showcases original artwork from throughout the southwest and west, along with handling the resale of art collections. Casa de Artistas is owned and operated by Antonio Moná who has been a Scottsdale art staple for over 20 years, working with many local and national artists while featuring a diverse collection of artworks. They are located at 7058 East Main Street, Scottsdale. For more information visit <http://www.jqjacobs.net/art/artistas/>.

Gallery Andrea is currently showcasing artist and gallery owners Andrea de Kerpely-Zak and Andrea Zakrzewski this month hosting their "Holiday Poinsettia Show" showcasing a special selection of poinsettia themed paintings created by both artists running through December 25th. In addition, the gallery will be hosting a group miniature show featuring landscape, abstract and still life work by other artists. The gallery is located at 7019 E. Main Street, Scottsdale and they are open six days a week from 11am to 5pm, closed only on Sunday.
