FULL360: A Southwest Continued debuts this Thursday, September 21 with an opening reception from 6:00-8:00 pm at the stunning Mountain Shadows Resort in Paradise Valley with all artists in attendance for an exciting evening of art and wine.

The Gallery curated by John Reyes of Reyes Contemporary Art showcases the work of four intriguing and talented artists Kristin Bauer, Ryan Campbell, Casey Farina and Travis Ivey who have made the Southwest their home and created pieces based in the formal traditions of realism, abstraction, video and text-based conceptual artwork.

FULL360: A Southwest Continued showcases artists who have been drawn or are native to the Southwest, who are currently creating new and exciting works, based in the formal traditions of realism, abstraction, video and text-based conceptual artwork. These four young artists are expanding the art narrative of the Southwest with their continued exploration of accepted traditional genres of art.
