February 1st Gallery Andrea Debuts "Romantic Ladies and Flowers Valentine's Show" highlighting figurative artist Joseph McCabe, along with Andrea de Kerpely-Zak and Andrea Zakrzewski. With such amazing weather take a stroll around Old Town Scottsdale and find your special someone that perfect gift... how about original art or wearable art!

Joseph McCabe loves to capture the interactions and romance of people in his work. His paintings utilize a loose impressionist style and he is inspired by great artists such as Renoir. Enjoy dazzling romantic flowers from Andrea de Kerpely-Zak, who is an internationally recognized artist who has been creating and exhibiting for over 35 years. She is known for colorful and delicate Impressionist flowers known as the "Healing Flowers". She has created a special series of romantic flowers especially for Valentine's Day.

Andrea Zakrzewski has created impressionist florals employing her signature modern palette knife technique, offering special "Miniatures" as well as larger sized works. Zakrzewski recently launched her own fashion line Andreasfloralfashion.com featuring wearable art of both Andrea de Kerpely-Zak and her romantic floral designs, which she debuted this past October at Phoenix Fashion Week.

The "Romantic Ladies and Flowers Valentine's Show" will be on display from Thursday, February 1st through Wednesday, February 28th. Visit Gallery Andrea and experience their incredible artwork first hand and meet this delightful and dynamic mother-daughter duo! The gallery participates in the weekly Thursday Scottsdale ArtWalk from 7pm to 9pm (each week). The gallery is located at 7019 E. Main Street, Scottsdale open daily from 11am to 5pm, closed only on Sunday. For more information about Gallery Andrea visit them online at <http://artandrea.com/>.
