Artist Laura Thurbon with her work

Monsoon season is upon us and Gallery Andrea is currently featuring paintings by local artist Laura Thurbon! Thurbon loves to capture the beauty and magic of these dynamic "monsoon" storms. Her artwork ranges in style and centers on bold colors, strong lines and organic shapes. When asked about her work Thurbon stated, "Painting is like living, it reflects my an inner, meditative quest for enlightenment, birth, love, joy, and compassion."

Healing Flowers Painting by Andrea de Kerpely-Zak

Daughter and gallery partner, Andrea Zakrzewski paints akin to her mother utilizing a palette knife to create work that is inspired by nature reflecting a loose impressionistic style. Zakrzewski has infused her love of her mother's work with her passion for the impressionists inspired by such artists as Monet and Van Gogh. This past October Zakrzewski launched her custom designed floral fashions incorporating artwork by both mother and daughter. Debuting her collection of vibrant dresses, skirts, scarves and handbags last year during Phoenix Fashion Week and recently showcased on AZFamily and Fox 10 News!
