Hotel Park City gives summertime travelers a luxury retreat for both indoor opulence and outdoor fun.

At just nine years old, Hotel Park City has already been making waves in the heart of its picturesque Utah locale—and throughout the nation—as a top ski resort. Edged along the Nordic Ski Course at the base of the Park City Mountain Ski Resort (there are actually three Alpine ski resorts within five minutes of the hotel), Hotel Park City offers ski bunnies the chance to enjoy some of the plushest powder in the United States. However, the fun doesn't start once the snowflakes start to trickle; it has been there all along.

Hotel Park City is close to a plethora of warm-weather activities, as well. Fly fishing, hot-air ballooning, golfing at Park City Golf Club and endless mountain biking and hiking trails are all at guests' fingertips. A heated outdoor pool and spa and access to the Spa at Hotel Park City make the warm season even sweeter.

What's more, the Park City stay is an all-suite hotel, meaning that each pad is outfitted with a cozy fireplace; a kitchenette or full-size kitchen (though there is an on-site Ruth's Chris Steak House and the casual Bandanna's Grill & Bar if you don't want to cook); a private patio that offers a first-row seat to pool, golf or mountain views; a jetted bathtub; and many more world-class amenities. So though the great outdoors beckon, no one will blame you if you play hooky from your day of hot-air ballooning and simply enjoy some peace and quiet in your sumptuous suite.
