

Tucson Dessert Hotspots

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Tuesday, 27 March 2012 22:02 - Last Updated Friday, 30 March 2012 07:50

Everyone loves a little something sweet-especially Tucson locals. From frozen yogurt to cupcakes to brownies, Tucson has an abundance of dessert hotspots that will cure any craving. Check out these places next time you have a sweet tooth.

Something Sweet Dessert Lounge

Something Sweet—the name says it all. Something Sweet features an array of coffees, Italian sodas, teas, shakes, and other delicious beverages to sip on while sampling a Big Ol' Brownie or Red Velvet Cake, unique to and freshly baked at Something Sweet.

www.somethingsweet-dl.com.

BTO

A popular frozen yogurt destination among University of Arizona students and Tucson locals, BTO Self Serve Yogurt is the perfect healthier alternative to ice cream. With flavors that change daily, and an array of toppings from candy to brownie to fruit, BTO has everything needed to satisfy your sweet tooth.

www.btoyogurt.com.

Frost Gelato

Frost Gelato, located at La Encantada, features a multitude of gelato flavors like cappuccino, cinnamon, Tiramisu, marble black cherry, and many more. Customers can enjoy a cup or cone while enjoying the modern, simple elegance that makes up Frost's atmosphere. Frost also features gelato cakes that can be ordered upon request.

www.frostgelato.com.

Sweet Things Cupcake Shoppe

Sweet Things Cupcake Shoppe features daily flavors from Crisp's Coconut to Mika's Mochas, each cupcake has a unique name and flavor. Though the cupcakes are enough to satisfy, Sweet Things also offers a variety of ice cream flavors to help curve your cravings. For those planning a wedding, Sweet Things also designs custom wedding cakes that are delicious and beautiful.

www.sweetthingscupcakeshoppe.com.

The B Line

The B Line, located on Fourth Avenue, makes all their desserts from scratch using only the best ingredients. With cookies, pies, cakes, and other desserts, The B Line has it all. Be sure to try the delectable chocolate dipped strawberries or the German chocolate cake for something a little different but equally delicious.

Tucson Dessert Hotspots

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Tuesday, 27 March 2012 22:02 - Last Updated Friday, 30 March 2012 07:50

www.blinerestaurant.com.