Janice's Women's Center: A Race to Remember is a 5k with all proceedings going to Janice's Women's Center opening. Janice's Women's Center is a full-service shelter/center for homeless women and or fleeing from domestic violence. Our mission for a Race to Remember is to spread awareness while raising money for Janice's Women's Center. A Race to Remember will be a 5k held on March 27th, a day full of inspiration, hope, and community.
