Children's Museum of Phoenix Makes Halloween a Three-Day Event with Trick-or-Treat at the Museum Oct. 29-31

The Children's Museum of Phoenix is extending its popular annual Trick-or-Treat at the Museum event to three days this year. On October 29th, 30th and 31st, 9am to 4pm, visitors are invited to trick-or-treat through the Museum's exhibits, monster mash on the dance floor, enjoy three floors of imaginative play, participate in the costume parade at 10am and 1pm with a fashion fright show immediately following.

Festive pop-up storytimes will take place throughout the day and kids will be able to create a Spooky Tree in the Art Studio.

Costumes are optional but strongly encouraged.

This event is FREE with paid Museum admission of $16 per person for anyone 1 year old and over and FREE for Museum members.

Both candy and non-candy treats are available while supplies last.

Masks are required for all visitors 2 and over. Info at <https://childrensmuseumofphoenix.org>.
