This March get your girlfriends together and treat yourself to some self-love as Extension Bar in Scottsdale hosts the first annual SELF-LOVE PARTY 2022 on Sunday, March 20th from 11am to 2pm.

The SELF-LOVE PARTY 2022 will be a special and festive day to enjoy some light bites and beverages while learning and seeing all the latest trends in fashion, beauty and hair. Extension Bar promises to spoil its special guests with girly goodies, plus one-of-a-kind Swag bags, raffles and fun for all.

Specializing in the top extension methods customized just for you, Extension Bar gives every lady her dream hair, minus the damage. On-site vendors for the day of the party will include Extension Bar, Ageless Anatomy, Let's Bash, Cruisin' Rentals, Jetzy's Jewelry, Lauren Schumacher, Create & Inflate, INFLATE FORTY-EIGHT, Hi Skin, Sweet's by Jaz, Respira Love, Erin Rickerson, Lala's Tasty Treats, A Social Affair, Material Girls and more!

Tickets are just $20 and 100% of the proceeds benefits the Allergy and Immunology Clinic at Phoenix Children Hospital. Tickets can be purchased at extensionbar.eventbrite.com.

The festivities will take place inside and outside in the parking lot of Extension Bar, which is located at 2221 N. Scottsdale Road in Scottsdale, AZ 85257.

The idea for the party and charity tie-in comes from Lisa Graziosi, who is the founder and owner of Extension Bar. As the mom of a 2-year-old, who suffers from severe allergies and eczema, Graziosi has seen first-hand the life-saving impact that PCH can have on a child's life.

"We cannot say thank you enough to PCH and all the staff and doctors in the Allergy and Immunology Clinic. They have given us hope for our Luca and saved his life," said Graziosi. "We are so proud to dedicate this day to help raise awareness for Phoenix Children's Hospital's research and advocacy program helping children with food allergies live safe, happy and fulfilling lives."
