Get ready to dress your best and dance the night away at the Children's Museum of Phoenix during its biggest fundraiser of the year: Night at the Museum on Saturday, November 5 from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Presented by the Children's Museum of Phoenix in conjunction with the 2022 Children's Museum Gala Co-Chairs Abigail and Edward Olaya and Honorary Grandparents Dee & Stephen DeTommaso, the annual fundraising gala directly supports the museum's efforts of making its educational programs and exhibits accessible to all children and families through its Every Child Program.

Guests will enjoy an evening filled with surprises and discoveries, including dinner under the stars, a live auction, live music, dancing and more as the museum comes to life after hours.

The evening will be emceed by the amazing auctioneer Bobby D. Ehler of Call to Auction and will feature dancing and entertainment from the live band Superhero. Following dinner, guests are invited to a Silent Disco after-party.

This year's event will also include the presentation of the Children's Museum Phoenix Kids at Heart Award to recipient Barb Kozuh, Director of Community Benefit at Delta Dental of Arizona Foundation.

Proceeds from the gala benefit the Museum's Every Child Program which provides free or reduced rate museum access to underserved and at-risk children and their families. The Museum aims to serve 75,000 children and their adult guardians each year through the Every Child Program, helping to build stronger children, families and communities.

Major sponsors of the 2022 Night at the Museum include T.W. Lewis, Sanderson Lincoln and Ryan Companies.

Tickets are available online here. Guests must be 21 years or older to attend.
