If you're looking to sink your teeth into the newest "Twilight" film, these "Eclipse" release parties will have you howling for more.

Fire & Ice Eclipse Release Party

Hosted by fan sites, www.Cullenboysanonymous.com and www.QuileuteWolfPack.com, this event not only allows Twihards to indulge in various "Twilight"-themed events like a costume contest but proceeds from the event go to Alex's Lemonade Stand and the Quileute Heritage and Language Preservation Fund. Merchandise will be available from any of the many fabulous vendors to help guests get into the spirit. Entrance to the June 29 party is free and tickets for the midnight on-site premiere are available for purchase. For more information, go to fireandice-event.info.

Halo Nail Salon and Spa

There is nothing more delightful than spending a day at the spa. In honor of the newest "Twilight" movie, Halo Nail Salon and Spa has been re-vamped, literally. On June 27, the salon will feature an "Eclipse Spa Day" starting at 2 p.m. "Twilight"-inspired services range from a Forks French Manicure to Volturi Vixen Nails and Wolfpack Waxing. Remember to brush up on your "Twilight" trivia because free treatments will be given as prizes to the vamps who know it all.
