Sure, a good ole game of Marco Polo is a summer favorite; but why not try something new and exhilarating? Stay cool this summer by trying the hottest trend in Arizona: water sports. Improve your skills in wakeboarding or water skiing at any of the Valley's water sport facilities. After one lesson you will be asking yourself, "What's Marco Polo again?"

TK Watersports

TK Watersports offers a variety of summer lessons for both residents of the Four Corners and visitors to the area. Whether you are interested in wakeboarding, water skiing, wake surfing or kneeboarding, TK Watersports will help you get up for the first time or help you graduate to the next level. Each lesson includes professional wakeboarding, skiing and wake surfing boats, top of the line equipment like CWB & Hyperlite, life vest or wet suit if needed and an expert instructor to show you the ropes. Prices vary from $175/hr/personal-$350/3hr/2 riders. TK Watersports covers all lake and reservoirs in Arizona that will allow motorized boats, watercraft or Watersports activities. TK Watersports ensures both a fun and safe time in the water for individuals of all levels.

Invert Sports

Lake Powell is one of the most popular lakes in Arizona with its 186-mile-long body set amid the deep canyons and spectacular scenery of the Glen Canyon National Recreation Area. Formed by one of the world's highest dams and the waters of the Colorado River, Lake Powell is a designated spot for water sports. Invert Sports is best known for its private chartered Lake Powell water ski, wakesurf, wakeboard, wakeskate and kneeboard lessons and all-inclusive overnight camps for people of all ages. With the type of current model competition water ski boats, HO water skis (Double skis, or Slalom) and skilled instructors, you'll have everything available to improve your water sport techniques. Not only does Invert Sports service Lake Powell but also all other lakes and reservoirs in Arizona. Whether you are a beginner, expert or somewhere in between, Invert Sports invites you to check out their sweet summer sessions.
