Welcome to the third installment of "Wedding Décor to Die For." We have talked about linens and chairs and now it is time for dance floors and tables. Dance floors can really make a statement in a wedding reception. We love color dance floors! Below are photos from two different weddings we produced, one with a black dance floor and one with a white dance floor. Both amazingly beautiful, but they each give very distinct feels to the room.

There are also these gorgeous vinyl dancefloor options. Choose the shape, size and color of the dance floor that you want and they can make it happen. Whether you choose a monogram, a design or just a plain color, your guests will love these dance floors!

And, of course, we can't forget about the table options! One of our favorite local table choices is the Descanso table from Classic Party Rentals. Another company that has tables we can't get enough of, Luxe Event Rentals. We particularly love the All Mirror table, the Croc Dining Table and the Reflections table. Absolutely stunning!
